For people interested in Participating/being served:

What does this ministry/group do?	Provide a woman's spiritual journey through a study of God's word in the Bible. This is accomplished with an additional text focusing on a particular area of the Bible or a life lesson based in Scripture. Past studies include Stepping Up Through the Psalms of Ascent ; My Soul Magnifies the Lord: A Scriptural Journey with Mary ; Patience: The Benefit of Waiting
When do they meet/serve?	Women's Bible Study meets every Wednesday from 9:30 AM to 11:30 AM. There is a fall session and a winter session; each meets for 6 to 10 weeks, depending on the length of the study. It is also recommended, but not required, that participants spend time reflecting on take-home materials between sessions.

Who is invited to participate?

Women who desire to learn more about God's word.

For people interested in volunteering/serving:

What volunteer opportunities are there?

1. Core Team member
2. Weekly Small Group Facilitator

“Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Women's Bible Study hosts “Book Talk”

Please join us to discuss Heaven is for Real: A Little Boy's Astounding Story of his Trip to Heaven and Back by Lynn Vincent, Todd Burpo and Colton Burpo. Just before he turned 4, Colton Burpo underwent an emergency appendectomy that resulted in an afterlife experience. After an unexpected, but full recovery, the story of his experience during his life-threatening illness begins to emerge.

We will meet on three Wednesdays in May: the 9th, the 16th and the 23rd from 9:45 until 11:00. Discussion is informal and open to all. Books are not provided, so must be purchased independently. If you have any questions, contact Carrie Wujek at 630-983-3027 or candtwujek@aol.com
