In a special way, children who have made their First Eucharist this year and their families will be invited to process together during the crowning. We encourage our First Communicants to wear their special outfits once more to honor our Blessed Mother and allow our church family to celebrate this joyful milestone with them.

Please keep all our military in your prayers, especially those within our Parish family.

Cleaning out your house? We are always in need of yarn or fleece to create prayer shawls, chemo caps, and blankets. Donations can be brought to the front desk of the Parish Office. Thank you!

We wish to offer our sympathy and a promise of our prayers to family and friends on the death of Elaine Harrett.

OCIA

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

A heartfelt welcome to those recently received into the Catholic Church this Easter! It was a beautiful Mass, and the parish is so grateful to have our newest Catholics as part of the community.

Bryan Lee, Carolyn Lee, Micah Satvedi, and Lea Willis were Baptized, Confirmed, and received First Communion. Abby Abbott, Amy Jia, Kaitlin Lee, and Grace Willis made their Profession of Faith, were Confirmed, and received First Communion, and Kyle Sumpay and Mark Willis were Confirmed.

A big thank you to Roberta Balsewicz for her hard work and leadership in the OCIA program and guidance to all of our catechumens and candidates.

“JESUS CAME AND STOOD
AMONG THEM AND
SAID TO THEM,
‘PEACE BE WITH YOU.’”

JOHN 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too – just as God, Our Father, sees us.
